INAUGURAL CEREMONIES.

MEETING OF THE NEW GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Inauguration of Governor Coffin To-morrow—Military Parade of First Regiment and Governor's Guard—The Inaugural Ball at Foot Guard Armory in the Evening.

Hartford, Jan. 7.—Members of the incoming general assembly will begin to arrive in the city to-night, and by tomorrow afternoon and evening almost all will be here to attend the caucuses at the capitol in the evening. Quarters have been engaged at the Hotel Heublein for Governor-elect Coffin, the members of his staff and his family and immediate friends. Almost all the available rooms in the Allen house, Hotel Heublein, the Hartford and United States hotels have been engaged in advance, and members will also be quartered at the City hotel, the Hotel Capitol, Farmington Avenue hotel and other places.

County caucuses for assistant clerk, doorkeepers, messengers, etc., will be held in the various hotels, principally the Allen house, which is the recognized republican hotel headquarters, in the afternoon and early evening, previous to the general caucus of the republican members, which will be held in the hall of representatives at 7:30 or 8 o'clock.

Both houses of the general assembly will meet on Wednesday at 10 o'clock and organize. In the house the roll will be called by Chief Clerk Dwyer of the state secretary's office, and the members will be called to order by Speaker Isaac Brooks of the last house. The new speaker will be elected by ballot and will take his seat as presiding officer. Then will follow the election of clerk, assistant clerk, chaplain, door-keepers and messengers, and after the appointment of committees to act at the inauguration ceremonies the house will adjourn at probably 2 or 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

State Secretary John J. Phelan will call the senate to order and call the roll. The new clerk will be elected by ballot and will then direct a ballot for president pro tem. The chaplain and messengers and doorkeepers will be elected, and the senate will adjourn till the afternoon.

When the houses meet in the afternoon a committee will be appointed by the house to notify the senate that the house is ready to meet it in joint session. The senate, headed by Lieutenant Governor Cooke and the president pro tem, will march into the house and take the seats facing the speaker's desk and await the arrival of Governor Coffin, who will be notified by a committee that the returns show him to be elected and that the two houses await his arrival.

THE INAUGURAL PARADE.
The military escort to the government on Wednesday will consist of the First regiment and the four companies of the Governor's Guards. Both New Haven companies of the Governor's Guard, the Second Foot and the Second Horse, will arrive before noon on special trains. The second company Foot, Major B. E. Brown, is expected to arrive about 11 o'clock. They will be met at the station by a committee of the First company Foot of this city and escorted to the Putnam Phalanx armory, where they will stock arms and then march to the Allen house to dinner. The Second Horse, Major Blakeslee, will reach the city later and will be met by a delegation of the Hartford Horse.

WALLINGFORD.
Sheriff Rod Austin took Albert and Horace Barrie down to North Haven yesterday morning, where they were brought before Justice of the Peace Edward Lindsey, and both pleaded guilty to entering and stealing rye and buckwheat flour from James S. Parker's grist mill in "Quinnie." They were both bound over to the superior court and are now safely housed on Whalley avenue in New Haven.

Sunday's ice storm was disastrous to the electric system on Center street and it was well into the afternoon before it was possible to get the car up on the hill. Early in the morning H. S. Williams, the milk man, hitched his span on the car, but owing to lack of proper connections of rigging the attempt was a failure. The cars on the Meriden line were delayed until in the afternoon.

Grocer Granniss' horse had another runaway, but was stopped without serious damage.

W. A. Goodrich, who has been confined to his home by illness for a week, returned to his work in New Haven yesterday.

Yesterday the January thaw was in operation; also a genuine London fog.
The walking about the streets is something terrible.

L. A. Northrup has gone to Torrington on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. E.
F. Knapp.

The Henry Allen whose name appeared as manager in one of the ancient invitations printed in yesterday morn-ing's "Courier" was one of the original founders of the Onondia community, and for several years was with the society on the west side and later went to Onondaga.

Adjourned meeting of the board of burgesses this evening.

Selectman Mix is confined to his home by illness.

There was another large audience last evening at the Murphy meeting in the opera house, and the gifted temperance orator was at his best and created the usual enthusiasm. Another meeting will be held at the same place this evening.

Miss Edith V. Smith expects to start next week for Fort Pierce, Fla., on a visit to her sister, Mrs. F. M. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wilson of Orchard street have an eleven pound boy

Social club is called for this evening.

thrown from his sleigh into the slush at the corner of Elm and Center street yesterday, but escaped serious injury.

"The Milkmaids' Convention," by the Junior auxiliary of St. Paul's church will be given in the town hall Friday evening.

HAMDEN'S TOWN MEETING.
The Proposed New Boundary Line—A Committee Appointed.

Hamden, Jan. 7.—A special town meeting was held in the town hall this afternoon to consider the matter of establishing new boundary lines between Hamden and North Haven. A number of the residents near the Hamden line, but who are in the town of North Haven, have requested that they be taken into the town of Hamden, and they have petitioned the legislature to grant their request. At the meeting of the citizens this afternoon a committee of three from each town was appointed to confer and try and effect a compromise in the matter.

Novel Clam Gathering.
A novel feature has been introduced in the gathering of clams at Paquonnuc. The water is frozen quite a distance, and the fishermen have a scow with steel runners. This they run on the ice until the clam or oyster beds are reached, and the clams are gathered in. Then three skaters get hold of the scow and run it along the ice to the landing at Paquonnuc, where the clams are loaded on teams.

Sons of the Revolution.
Judge Morris B. Beardsley of Bridgeport, who was the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor in this state last fall, will be one of the guests of honor at the banquet of the New York Sons of the Revolution. Walter S. Logan, son of the late Seth S. Logan, who was controller of Connecticut in 1870, is a prominent member of the New York society. He was a classmate of Judge Beardsley at Yale in 1870. Chan-cely M. Depey is the president of the society and will deliver the chief address at the banquet.
